

For this project i think iam gonna make a garden guard, and some fairies out of dead roots and natural material i will collect from the garden, maybe something better than that it depends on the site and the whole atmosphere.

Maybe i am not good enough in writing and making good looking application but i am good at making sculptures and installation that relate to subjects and people always interact with my work