

The area is fenced with wall and young trees to give visitors a sense of security and belonging. Young trees don't flower or fruit in summer, but they give hope to visitors. In fact, young trees are a hope for a bright future for themselves and visitors. The walls, the entrance, the sitting places are all made of stone to convey a sense of stability young trees are hope for future and walls are news of the past.

Photo 1 of table 1

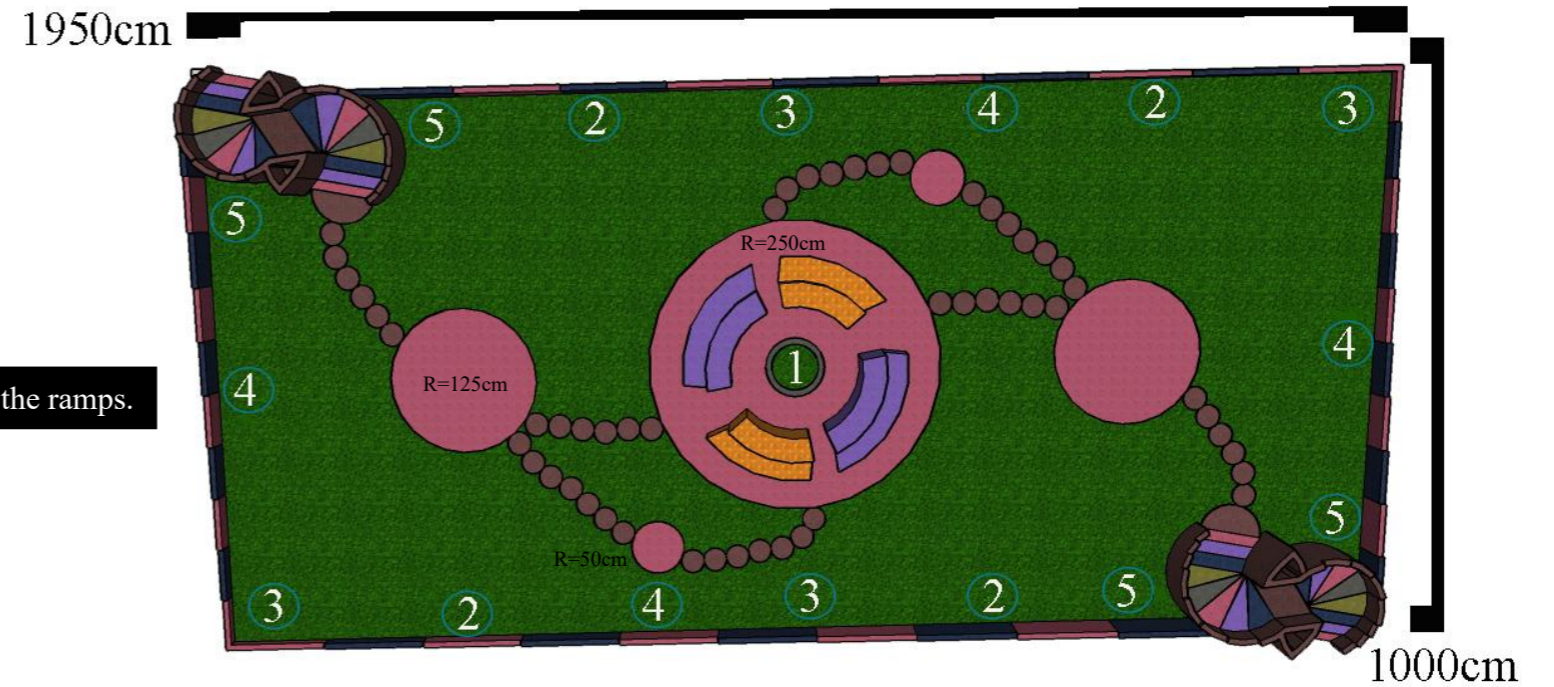

Table.1.

1. MAPLE	1 tree trunk
2. QUINCE	4 tree trunks
3. CHERRY	4 tree trunks
4. PEAR	4 tree trunks
5. GRAPE	4 tree trunks

Photo.2.

People enter or exit from the ramps.

The sides of the trees, except the maple tree and the grape trees, are decorated with spirea flowers.

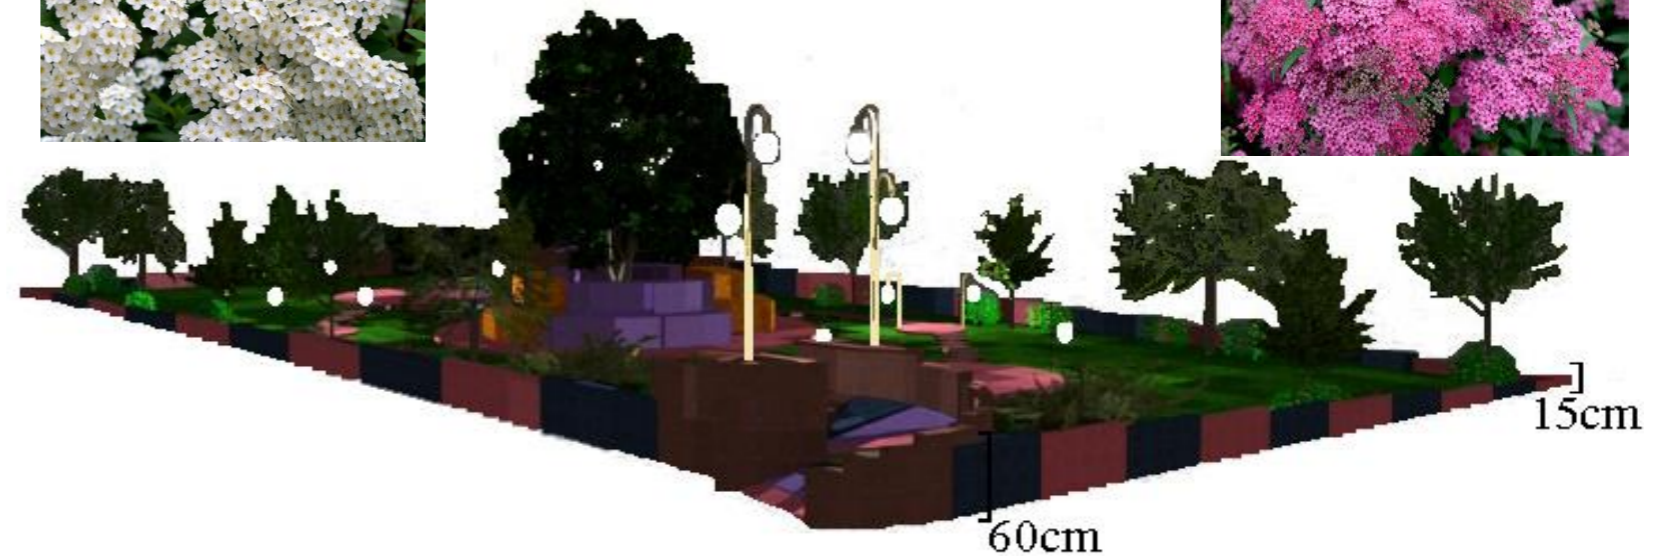

Photo.3.

Photo.4.

Photo.6.

We have used lamps at the entrance and exit and inside the garden to decorate and provide night light.